FOREWORD

We are very happy to present the 1966 edition of the Jay Dee.

We express sincere thanks to all who made this edition possible. We trust that you, with us, will review these pages with a high degree of appreciation for the success of the Class of 1966.

On behalf of the Senior Class . . .

YEARBOOK STAFF

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Robert Frost once said, "This is the age of young ambition eager to be tried." The one consistency in modern society is change. Jennie Dean High School's graduates are helping to effect changes in society. At the same time, you must preserve our inherited values, but also achieve new values, seek new understandings, new appreciations, new skills, and new attitudes. One may not be able to use yesterday's knowledge and skills for tomorrow's living; thus high school graduates will experience a new day in society. Our school seeks to educate for these rapid changes which will greatly challenge our graduates.

Let us congratulate you upon your achievements. May you go out to serve and improve society for this new day, for "This is the age of young ambition eager to be tried."

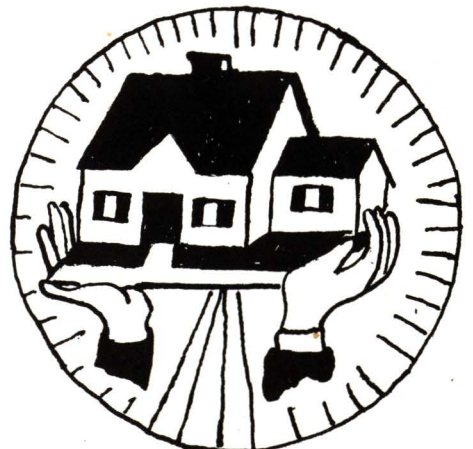

C. N. Bennett, Principal

CLASS HISTORY

August 31, 1961 -- such a long time ago. It is so hard to believe that after five long years, we are finally the graduating class. Remember when we were just Greenies, so eager and yet so awkward? We struggled through all the strains and growing pains of a baby class. That year we had an enrollment of forty-nine eager Greenies. Our officers were: President, Maridel Fields; Vice President, Barbara Craven; Secretary, Emily Lansdown; and Treasurer, Jacquis Thurston. Our advisors were Miss E. V. Fields and Mr. E. R. Dildy.

As Freshmen many friendships were sealed that have grown stronger still through our final school years. Although our friendships became stronger, we lost a lot of our friends. Our membership decreased to thirty-four. Our officers were: President Natalie Swann; Vice President, Alice Robinson; Secretary, Paula Gaskins; Treasurer Edward Lawrence; Chaplain, Annie Bates; and Parliamentarian, Maxine Fortune. Again we welcomed back Mr. E. R. Dildy with the addition of Mr. H. P. Johnson as advisors. The Freshman class sponsored a pleasure trip to Glen Echo Amusement Park in Washington, D.C.

In September, 1963 we returned to Jennie Dean as Sophomores. Then we awoke to the fact that we were a long way from graduation. We laid aside our airs of sophistication for the moment and were bent upon assuming a more serious role. Our officers were: President, Harold Anderson; Secretary, Maridel Fields; Treasurer, Natalie Swann. Our advisors were Mrs. M. W. Walker and Mr. E. R. Dildy. That year Natalie Swann won second place in the Miss Homecoming Contest. Dorothy Field, another sophomore, won third place in the Miss Homecoming Contest. We really were at the height of our pride to have two from our class so successful.

1964, and the class seemed almost there -- Juniors anyway; but it was no time for loafing, as homework was piled upon us. Of course, we ambitiously set to work to raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom. The selecting of a theme for the prom proposed quite a controversial question; we finally choose "A Night In Hawaii." That year Paula Gaskins won second place in the Miss Homecoming Contest. The class officers were: President, Terris Cole; Vice President, Alice Robinson; Secretary, Toni Ellis. Mr. S. M. Washington was our advisor. Terris Cole was also elected President of the Student Participation Association, and Toni Ellis was Vice-President. The Junior class was honored to have four of its members to be initiated in the Apex Chapter of The National Honor Society. They were: Maridel Fields, Natalie Swann, Toni Ellis and Maxine Fortune. Then we knew that we were on our way to true success.

Greenies, Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and finally we were Seniors. Five years have passed and our membership has decreased to twenty-two. Our officers were: President, Alice Robinson; Vice President, Maxine Fortune; Secretary, Sherrell Lee; Financial Secretary, Roxana Wilkins; Treasurer, Annie Burke; Chaplain, Edward Porter; and Parliamentarian, Edward Lawrence. We were thrilled to have three of our Senior boys to play on the football team. They were Edward Lawrence, Edward Porter and Reginald Carter. This being our last year, the Senior class worked vigorously on raising money for the Miss Homecoming Contest, for a senior trip and to publish the 1966 Jay Dee. Our candidate for the Homecoming contest was Toni Ellis, who won for the High School Department with flying colors. This was our first time to win the Miss Homecoming Contest.

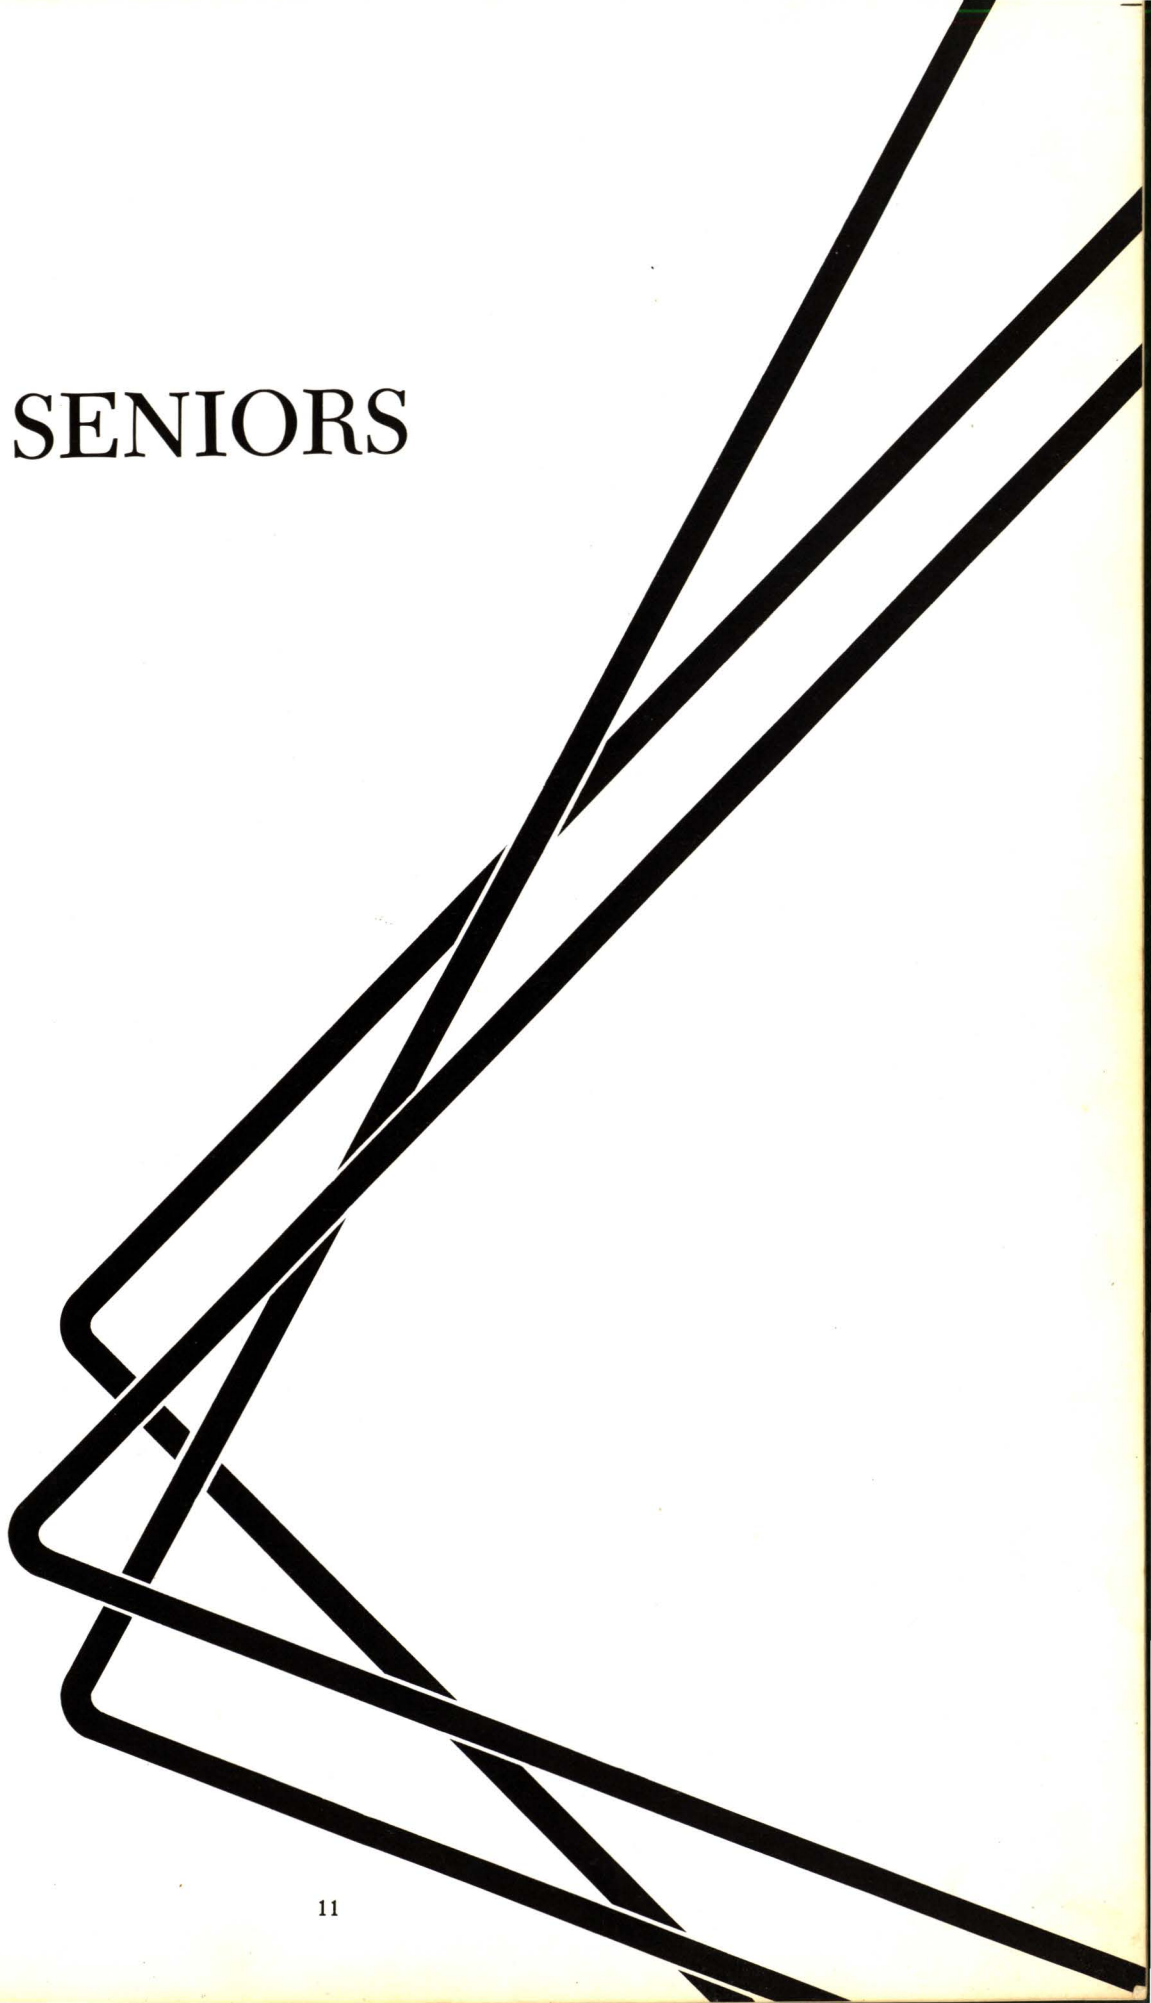

Now as graduation, that night of nights, approaches, we look back over all of our wonderful experiences. As it is said, "All good things must come to an end." So we, too, must leave Jennie Dean, full of regret for times gone by and expectations for the future to come. We will never forget Jennie Dean. We hope that she will not forget us.

Senior Class Song

Tune: Auld Lange Syne

1

May we the class of sixty-six
Ever keep in mind
All the happy hours
We spent at dear old Jennie Dean.

2

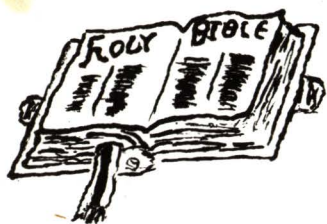

Tonight we are leaving you
To go our separate ways
May each of us find peace and joy
As time marches on.

3

And when we travel out in life
We shall always pray
That all things we may do
Bring fame to Jennie Dean.

Chorus

Of thee, old Jennie Dean, we sing
Thy praises we now raise
For all the knowledge you imparted
In these five happy years.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the graduating class of 1966, in the town of Manassas, the county of Prince William, and the state of Virginia, being of sound mind and good judgment, make this our last will and testament to Jennie Dean High School.

With us goes our hopes and dreams that we have fulfilled our obligations to make our underclassmates want to reach the goal we have strived for.

First, to our principal, Mr. C. N. Bennett, we hope that you will be proud of us and we want you to know that where we are today you put us there, by your influence and your encouragement to do well in whatever we attempt to do.

Second, to our teachers, we owe our sincere thanks and gratitude in pushing us to our purpose in life, and getting us ready for the long journey ahead.

Third, to our underclassmates, we say strive to do your best so that you can reach the goal we have reached and we hope that you can have the enjoyable time, which we have had at Jennie Dean. We say also, "Strive Hard For What You Want."

Fourth, the following members of the Senior Class leave with you these personal items:

Annie Bates wills her soprano voice to Joyce Casey.

Annie Burke wills her ability to stay in high school and to graduate, to Patricia Moor

Toni Ellis wills her position as co-captain of the cheerleaders to Sylvia Cole.

Dorothy Fields wills her hair style to Yvonne Davis.

Maridel Fields wills her long distance telephone calls and air mail letters to Marva Lansdowne.

Willie Fields wills his eyes to Gregory Fields.

Maxie Fortune wills her senior privilege to cut line to Kenneth Johnson.

Shirley Knox wills her position as a member of the senior class to Jean Shorts.

Paula Gaskins wills her privilege to sit in the front of the auditorium to all underclassmates.

Elmer Lee Johnson wills his ability in auto mechanics to George Howard.

Edward Lawrence wills his football suit to Merrill Mauney.

Sherrell Lee wills her place in the senior march to Shirley Owens.

Eddie Porter wills his position on the football team to J. P. T.

Gloria Purvis wills her smallness to Lilly Jackson.

Alice Jean Robinson wills her sense of humor to anybody that wants it.

Iretha Spraglin wills her appetite to Althea Crewe.

Natalie Swann wills her seat in BSCS Biology to any nut that wants it.

Christine West wills her jolly way to Elsie Casey.

William West wills his art talent to any underclassman that will need it.

Roxana Wilkins wills her success in shorthand to Betty Johnson.

Jacqueline Williams wills her Royal typewriter to Russell Johnson.

To Annie:
 Although I am
 three years late, I wish for you the best of luck in what ever you decide to do, for you are truly a swell person, and swell people deserve the best.
 I know, because I am swell too.
 One day in the near future (I hope)
 Annie Burke will become Annie
 B. Martin and together we shall do our thing - together, and that will be groovy for laips. Smile forever
